Child! do not throw this book about;
Refrain from the unholy pleasure
Of cutting all the pictures out!
Preserve it as your chiefest treasure.

DEDICATION DEDICATION DEDICATION

Whether or not we play on athletic teams or attend matches, all of us at Lick are strengthened by the presence of Eliot Smith. His skillful mix of athletic ability and personal guidance makes the Lick athletic department not just a practice court for the perfect jump shot, but a training ground for personal integrity as well. Hundreds of Lick students know, when they walk onto Coach Smith's team, or into his class or office that they will be treated honestly and with respect, that their games will be judged fairly and without prejudice, and that, no matter what the score, their coach will stand by them, his cheerfulness flung out like a half-court shot at the buzzer. As enthusiastic during a losing game as during a winning one, Coach Smith displays a blooming spirit born not of the thrill of winning, but of the passion for the challenge itself. He judges athletic strength in only one way – the strength of the heart. Stubbornly cheerful, passionately dedicated, terminally upbeat, Coach Smith embodies the qualities of sincerity and determination that we, his students, his players, his colleagues, and his friends deeply respect and admire. For these reasons and many more, we, the 1994 Lick-Wilmerding Tiger staff, dedicate this book to Coach Eliot Smith.

HEADMASTER HEADMASTER HEADMASTER

This yearbook,

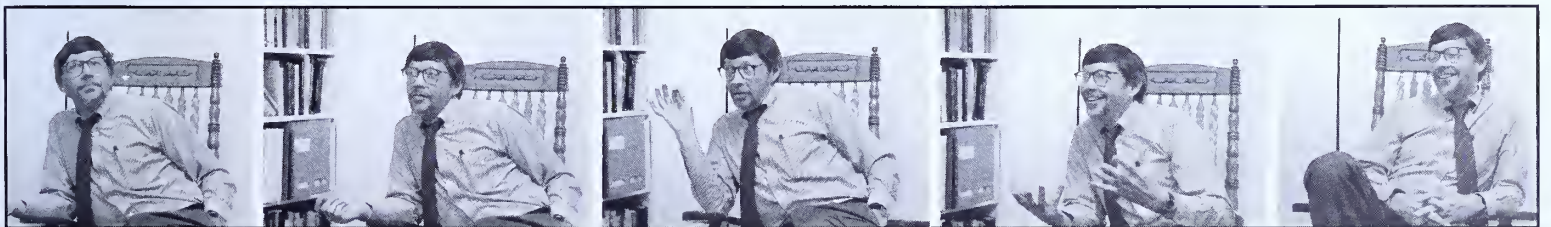

which breaks new ground in celebrating the whole Lick community, is emblematic of the perspective and the leadership of the Class of 1994. Starting with Kate's, Moon's, Lorenzo's, Waquar's, and Francesca's leadership, and pervading virtually the entire class, this year has been marked by consistent attention to the good of the whole school. It is a rare high school where freshman, sophomores, and juniors feel equally embraced by the senior class and where the needs and interests of the whole take precedence over the narrower concerns of the few who happen to be older. But Lick is just such a school today, and we owe the Class of '94 a debt of gratitude for its part in making it so. I want to thank the Yearbook staff for making this an all-school, rather than a senior, yearbook. However, I know that this transition could not have occurred without the support and good will of the senior class. May this yearbook, then, stand as a symbolic reminder of the ways in which the Class of '94 looked beyond its own needs and interests to those of the school-at-large and of the school-of-the-future. Your idealism, selflessness and public-spiritedness will not be forgotten. Thank you!

“It wasn’t till I passed an apple orchard and saw the trees, each blooming under its own canopy of glass, that I perceived that even the dream, as dreams so often do, left some questions unanswered about the future. The apple tree of tomorrow, a bloom under its inviolate hood, makes you stop and wonder. How will the little boy climb it? Where will the little bird build its nest?”

- EB White

"Better than all measures
Of delightful sound,
Better than all treasures
That in books are found,
Thy skill to poet were, thou scorner of the guard.

Teach me half the gladness
That thy brain must know,
Such harmonious madness
From my lips must flow,
The world shall listen then - as I am listening now."

The unholy trinity shall live forever. In 1990 I came to luck and by luck and good friends, I'm still here. I want to acknowledge the following people: Marc - Vivre la France, Graeme - through all our fights and bad times we ride on, Berkeley - keep this place fun after I leave, Will - same, Sarah - Number 1 or 3, Dan W. - sometimes life throws you a curve and you have no choice but to hit it, friends again, Maia - Here's to Benviner and fan of the year, Ben - You'll be lucky in 2 years, Yano - Maybe we'll finish that car someday, Rachel - You keep my mornings interesting, Aaron - I know you're in college and all but I had to mention you, Jared - Eternal stump, Lorenzo - It's always fun to talk to you at parties as everyone else passes out, Lewis - This may be extreme but can I have my tape back, Mike S. - Call me in ten years and we'll do Crossfire II, Kev - To all the nights at Day Street Park, to anyone I forgot, I'm sorry. Lick's been great, I hope everyone does well in life, and never loses sight of their goals.

There's a 'wicket' in my pocket, and one day way back in the days when the grass was still green, and the pond was still wet, and the clouds still clean, and the songs of the swimmers rang out in space... One morning, I came to this glorious place and I first saw the Trees! The TREPPOLA Trees. The big bright colored info of the ruffula trees. Mile after mile in the fresh morning breeze you could hear the voice saying, "For Sam-I-Am, I will never eat green eggs and ham."

• just a couple of notes •

First, to my buddy Brooke: your crazy-ass driving has given me the opportunity to see my life flash before me one too many times. Thanks for not killing me. PS: You've corrupted my driving for good. Also, don't forget that Tap Plastics is where it all began. • Millie Willy Mae: That bottle of German Cider was the best. • Sara L: What up G? You're a sweetie. • Dan W: we both belong in the X-country slackers hall of fame. • Alfonso: we'll always sing the song: "Memories, in the corner of my mind..." • My advising group: You guys are the best, but we've got to be the biggest bunch complainers: what's going good and what's bad? speaking of which, Mrs. Irwin: keep on makin' your pots. • David: I miss you. • Anna Briggs: See ya drunkard. j/k Keep smilin' for me. • Goranka: You've been my best teacher, and a great a friend. I'll miss you. • Mr. Sanborn: You're a great guy, and are on my same mellow wavelength. • David Fries: The guy who says, "I get aroused by da' smokin'." Peace. • To Kate, Eva, Bear, Lorenzo, Rachel, Steve, Mike, Anna, Lisa: your all great and we've had our laughs. Now if we can just keep from recklessly spinning out like on our way to Sonoma, maybe we can all laugh some more. I love you all- David

"It was the best of times,
it was the worst of times,
it was the age of wisdom,
it was the age of foolishness,
it was the epoch of belief,
it was the epoch of incredulity,
it was the Season of Light,
it was the Season of Darkness,

It was the Spring of hope,
it was the winter of despair,
we had everything before us...

... that serene and blessed mood,
 In which the affections gently lead us on,
 Until, the breath of this corporeal frame
 And even the motion of our human blood
 Almost suspended, we are laid asleep
 In body, and become a living soul:
 While with an eye made quiet by the power
 Of harmony, and the deep power of joy,
 We see into the life of things.
 -W. Wordsworth
 From "Tintern Abbey"

Aria Bettinger

"There's a tree that grows in Brooklyn. Some people call it the Tree of Heaven. No matter where its seed falls, it makes a tree which struggles to reach the sky. It grows in boarded-up lots and out of neglected rubbish heaps. It grows up out of cellar gratings. It is the only tree that grows out of cement. It grows lushly ... survives without sun, water, and seemingly without earth. It would be considered beautiful except that there are too many of it.

Betty Smith

A Tree Grows in Brooklyn

When you come to the edge
Of all the light you know,
And are about to step off
Into the darkness of the unknown,

Faith is knowing
One of two things will happen.
There will be something solid to stand on,
Or you will be taught how to fly

3 warned- at some times we may appear to be sane, healthy individuals, but, in fact, we are to k-Wilmerding what Chevy Chase is to late night television. We shall begin by saying that while ris Yeltsin has a large nose, his is by no means comparable to that of Barbara Streissand. (D: Wick, enough about noses already.) Okay, D is right. Enough about nose sizes... after all, it's what's ide that counts, right? Let's take a brief look at the heads, hearts, and hands (and mouths, sez ch) that have shaped our last 4 years and (WARNING! Highly sappy, emotional material... der 17 requires accompanying parent or adult guardian) given us the beautiful, lasting endships that we know we will treasure not only after college, and throughout our lives, but o as we descend into the fiery burning pits of hell, and from there fall through the nine levels the Inferno (Thanks, Dante) until we reach the bottom, where we are chained to the walls with e hot C-clamps by 3 amazingly voluptuous 5'3" she-demons (Dave! Dave! Wake up!!). Well, rway, what we're trying to say is we'll remember you for a long time. Shall we start in the most ical place, at the beginning of freshman year? No, we will not. We will, instead, begin at 2:47 on May 15, 1992. What happened on May 15th, 1992? Who gives a damn; that's the point. At s particular moment, we, as a group, feel compelled to insert a brief lyrical tribute to ... (what e?) ... baseball.

IN CONCLUSION: To the class of '94 I owe my deepest thanks and love for making my high school years the most standard, fun-filled, life education I could possibly hope for. Under close examination I'd like to say: Tony BAL, productions puts, the brothers without whom life would be dull. Lorenzo, you've been my close friend for as long as I can remember. The amount of fun, serious, crazy, deep...time we've shared has created a bond that will last forever. I love you. Al, what could I do without a friend like you with whom I can share more wild, secret things than anybody. Our close friendship with each other is a gift that I hope can last far into the future. I love you. Kate, you break of nature. You know I hold dear every uncontrollable laugh and serious conversation that we've shared. Your the kinda "girlfriend" that I feel comfortable acting freaky around and I thank you for that. Much loves to ya. Anna, I can't possibly capture all the love I feel for our relationship. I've had some of the best time doing almost nothing in your presence. Love all over you. Ben, I am blessed to have been your pal for the last few years. You given me smiles and respect for your charm and attitude (even though you wear my grandpa's clothes). Much Love Rachel, what a gal that Rachel my pal. You are a true friend and a true freak, and I am grateful for your presence. Much love. Steven, well my thick-belt-buckled brother thank for goin' apog and yet retaining a righteousness that I am happy to have been a part of. I love you man. Michael Scherer, your intellectuality and sexuality have intrigued me for all the time that I've known you, thank. Much Love, Brooke, your trickster, thank you for always having a smile on your face and for being the calm cool cat that you are. Much Love. M. Weinberg, your silly antics had me in stitches and now I cherish those scars as a memory of our friendship (scars for the stitches...yeah). Much Love, Dave Sabzar, advising with Ms. Irwin, Arch, good times with Garank! I've been through good and bad with you bud. Much Love. M. Epsteinbergonesville U.S.A., you are the greatest. EP's buds jokes and all around good memories are what I carry with me from our friendship. Much Love, Yano! What a guy Yano! I respect you and feel lucky to have been your friend thank for your happiness. Much Love. Kevin Day, you've been unrelentless in your kindness and smiles, thank for being a pal. Much Love. Dan "the funny man" Kramer, thank you for your insight and some spitting flying, choke on your coke good laugh. Advising, Much Love, Dan Kocher, you've been next to me all year and you've provided me with insight and absurdity that made it all just that much better. Much Love. Francesca, I will always cherish you, dear friend and special person, you keep in touch! Buckets of love to ya. Maria, I'm glad I was able to share in the wonderful person that you are. Lisa, you've been the object of my deepest love and deepest respect, thank you for sharing your wonderful self with me. Much Love. Mac Love, Meleah, thank you for letting me be your friend, and putting up with my contusions. Much Love. To the best advising group in the world "we are the CHOSEN ONES!" Thanks for bearing me and sharing yourselves. Much Love. To those cool folks in the Junior class: Jonah, my bud since forever, stay crazy and hilarious, and I love you dearly. Josh Male, my friend, thank for the conversations, laughs and much more. Dan "the butta man" Westcott your the nicest guy around, keep bein' a clownner. Much Love. Dave Fries, yo rascal, I had fun roll' chillin' with you and I give you Much Love Ben, even though you're not a junior, you are still happy, down with it, barrel of fun that I am blessed to have been friends with keep on truckin' at Lick. Much Love. Erik Weiner, you fuckin' funny man, and you've been a pal. Much Love to ya. Stephanie, it was short but sweet. I'll remember you. Mice Love. To Emma my sister and dear friend, I hope you continue to thrive at Lick, and of course I'll see you forever. Much Love. To you Garanka I thank immensely for being a great friend and flawless teacher. You made architecture the most fun. Much Love. Ms. Bryant, you have been the most influential teacher in my history, you have taught me how to think critically and wholeheartedly and to respect all things and everyone. Thank you and Much Love. To all those I have mentioned older, younger, bigger, and smaller, you have contributed to the creation of the happiest, luckiest Lickin' alive. To all, my thanks and to all, my Love.

Dear Korgold

Four years ago I was a shell. A well trained skeleton on which skin was pulled tight. I use this graphic image to illustrate the fact that my class, the class of 1994, has helped me put some actual substance onto that skeleton of mine. Each and everyone of you, whether indirectly or directly, have added to what and who I think I am now. Amber, she didn't let me get away with a thing. Kazu explained to me, without a patronizing tone, the physical derivation of a falling body. Willie Mae told me of the wonders of friendship under the moonlight. Dave C. and Dana and I went around during the civic center urban adventure, a three day period that I won't forget. James Harris constantly was late for advising and still hasn't shown up for senior year. I can't forget Dan Kramer, who showed me (who showed us all) everything there is to know. And he's not all I can't forget. You know who you are, my dear friends: students as well as faculty. I am unable to imagine what my life will be like after this year is over. Will the old inside jokes still produce laughter? Will we all feel the need to congregate together in one big mass? I'll have to get back to you on those questions in about a year or so. To the class, you guys have expanded my mind and my heart, not to mention my tolerance (as I'm sure I've expanded your's). You all now make up my substance. I have taken a piece of each of you with me and I will forever hold it dear. Thank you class of '94. Love always L.J. Pisoni

VARSITY SOCCER

The Boy's Varsity Soccer Team started the year on a high note, losing only one game in the preseason. The Tigers won their first league game before falling to a 3-8-1 overall standing. Despite their losing record, the team advanced to the playoffs. Led by captains Antonio Piccagli and Berkeley Kauffman, the Tigers won their quarter-final game against Marin Academy 2-0, with Jared Green in goal. They came close to beating UHS in the semi-final game, barely losing in double overtime.

With the help of Coach Felipe Magalhaes, this years J.V. Soccer team were 3-0 in the pre-season and 2-5 in their league. They had an outstanding game against Bridgemont with a score of 5-0. "They played hard, and had very close games. Three of their losses were 2-1.," said Coach Smith. Mark Levin made a head shot against Branson to make the game 1-0. Other team leaders were Jesse Basbaum, Mike Schindler, Ian Petroni, and Maurice Harper. The team was very enthusiastic; starting the season with nine players and ending with 16.

J.V. VOLLEYBALL

The season started out with a lot of new faces. Our new coach Barre Fong led us to victory with all of his support and by showing us how to "Eat Red Meat." When the pressure was on in some of our tougher games, our beautiful pictures of "Fabio" were always there to show us the way. While waiting two hours in the dark after each game for Radio Cab, the team sang "old tunes" and bonded. With five returning players and seven fresh faces, we knew it was going to be a great season! With a lot of hard work, concentration, and loads and loads of laughter, we were able to win the championship!!! With lots of love to Kyra, Hermine, Karen, Julia, Susie, Alexis, Alissa, Dagny, Jennie, and Laginne, you all did great! We love you too, Karla! And many thanks to Tiffany for working us so hard. Thanks for such an exciting season! You guys are the best!

With love,
Heather Bias, #17

"After a strong showing at last year's BCL Championship and with more than half the players returning, the Lick Wilmerding Varsity Girls' Volleyball Team was ensured a promising season. Coach Brenda Kou was back in full force with new son Conor in tow. Between peek-a-boo and baby-sit, the team found time to leave good ol' San Francisco and head for the hills, the ever popular Middletown, CA for their annual volleyball tournament, always competitive and always FUN! The team realized what it was like to truly play the game after four consecutive matches lasting well into the night. So much for bedtime! The girls finished third in the pool and played some awesome volleyball including a high energy, high speed match against Geyserville in which they dug, set, hit, blocked and laughed like never before."

VARSITY TENNIS

Going into the final match, the Lick Girls Varsity Tennis Team had an impressive 3-4 record, better than any Lick Girls Tennis Team has done in the past!!! All the girls wanted to finish their record-breaking season with a bang and they all did in their final match against San Domenico where they volleyed, back pedaled, slammed, and hustled their way to an awesome score of 5-0! Rachel hit some whizzin' overhands that turned the head of her opponent and Kyra batted some killer shots that approached the speed of sound as they flew over the net. The unstoppable #1 doubles pair, Wendy and Elisa, played a great match, which they say was probably the best match of their season. Super teamwork, girls! "Eat our green fuzz, San Domenico!" Great playing Krute, Rachel, Cory, Elisa, Sarah, Natalya, Megan, Wendy, Jackie, Kyra, Erin, and Jessica!! Y'all rock! Thanx coach for those peppy pep talks 'n' pumping up!

CROSS COUNTRY

This year's cross-country team went through a transition year with two new coaches and a new rigorous training program. It seemed to pay off, as the team went to the State qualifying meet at Mills College for the second year in a row! The boys team was led by top runners Brooke Patterson and Phil Jonas. The girls team was led by sophomore Celina Lee.

The Tigers began their successful season going undefeated in pre-league games. Although the early season knee injury of starting point guard Lisa Wheaton was a setback for the team, with the leadership of co-captains Dana Goldberg and Anne Ladd and the strong performance of Nova Szoka, the team continued its aggressive play. New head coach Amy "Awesome" Touli and assistant coach Brenda Kou have led the team to its current 11-3 record, with playoffs ahead.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

The year was a test of commitment, dedication and camaraderie for all of us. This year Coach Smith introduced new things to the program. We used City College's gym for the first time which meant no more late practices for any of the teams. Coach Harper was also introduced into the program and has been extremely valuable. We would like to thank our fans and most importantly the coaches for teaching us how to be champions in Basketball as well as in life.

The girls came in powerfully this year by defeating Urban twice with point spreads of 38 and an incredible lead of 42. Finishing their season, they had a 8-7 record with high scores coming from Alisa Jackson, Molly Kane, and Alison Maloney.

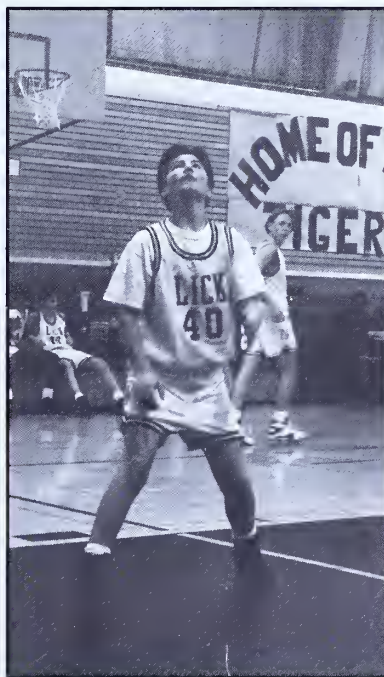

As the Tigers finished their season, the boys showed a strong beginning as they went undefeated for their first 3. They lost their next three, losing twice to University. The teams high scorers include Anye Spivey, Maurice Harper, and Darius Barron. The players give our future varsity team great potential.

We work in the dark-
We do what we can-
We give what we have.
Our doubt is our passion, and our passion is our task.
The rest is the madness of art.

The House of Blue Leaves

This fall, the Lick-Wilmerding Drama Department presented the award-winning play. The House of Blue Leaves, by John Guare. The play, a dark comedy that takes place in the early sixties, includes live music, an exploding bomb, three nuns, a deaf starlet, and a wife who barks like a dog. It starred (in alphabetical order), Jessica Bancroft, Camilla Busnovetsky, Madison Compton, Joanna Eveland, Andrew Lison, Sean Morris, Tessa Swigert, Richard Tayloe, Noe Venable, Erik Weiner, and Kathryn Wyler.

The jazz band members, aside from playing their repertoire, have been learning about rhythm, sight reading and improvisation. The advanced jazz improv. members have been working on doing their own arrangements of pieces. This year the jazz musicians broke the tradition of a shared concert and went out on their own for a full night of jazz music. In the Spring, they went to the CMEA festival prepared for a superior ranking from the judges, but hoping for a bit of luck too. This year was fulfilling for the jazz musicians and anyone lucky enough to hear them!

GRANDPARENTS DAY

Oh My! It's Maria the Mad Hatter and Moon the mouse. My, My, My!

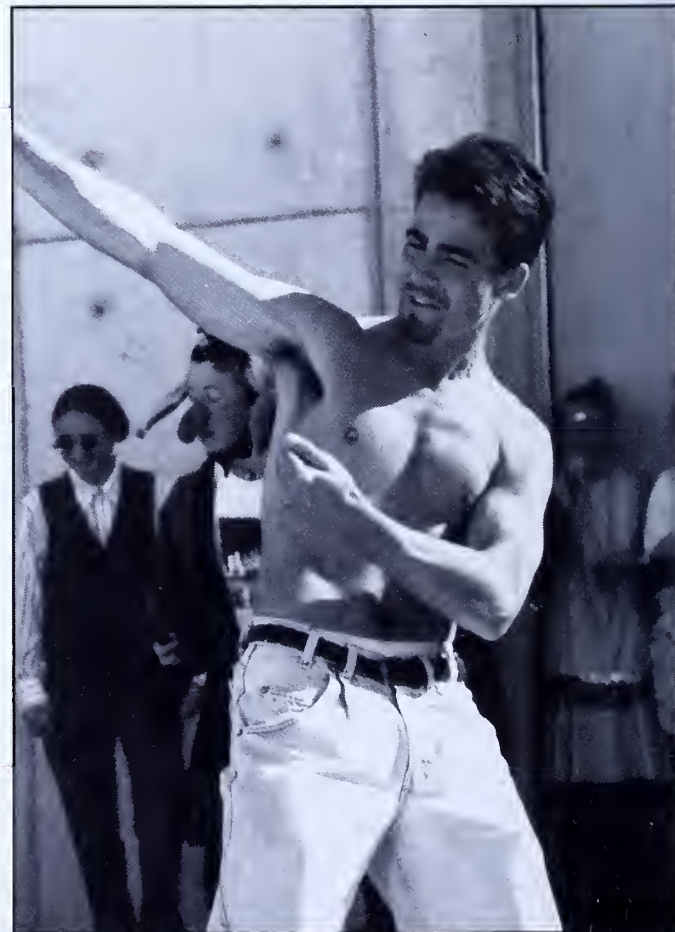

Waqar impersonates our favorite baseball coach while Danielle goes for that all-over tan.

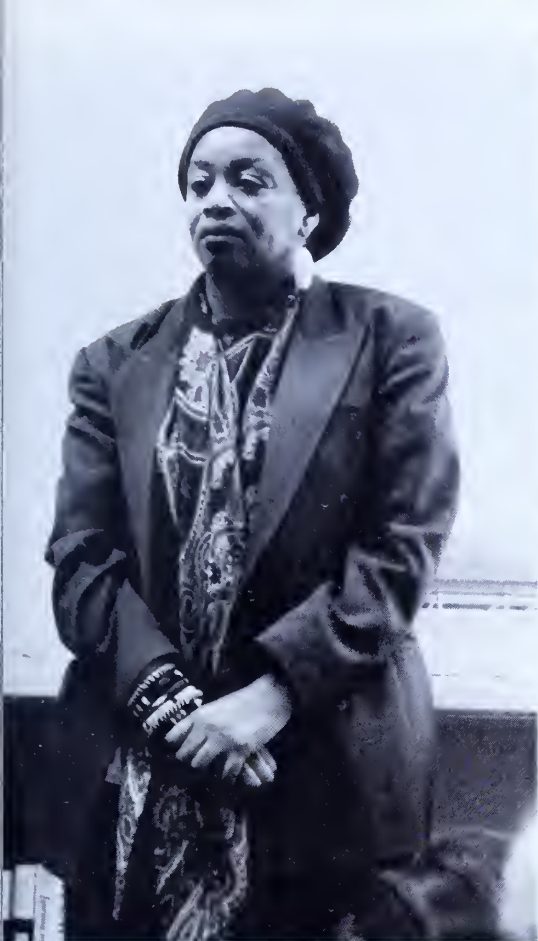

Alexandra, Shoshana, and Renina look pretty dazed and confused.

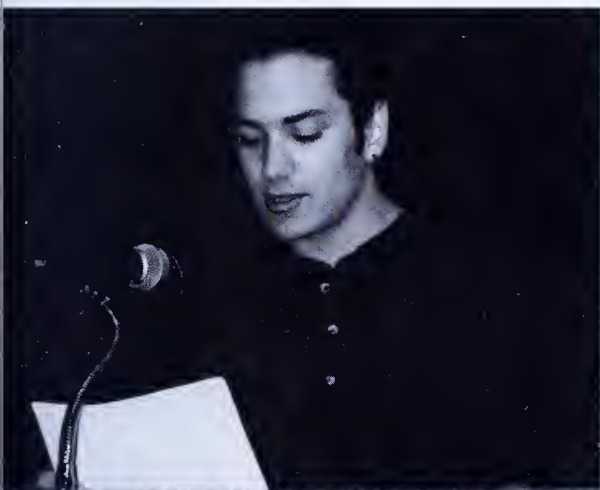

Try not to excite Erik too much with that leg, Don!

It's a bird, it's a plane, it's FABIO!

Noah Wolfson Day, entitled "Transforming Rage", brought students, faculty and guests together, devoting the day to a closer view of human conflict as viewed through the eyes of perpetrators, victims, rescuers, resisters and innocent bystanders. Workshop sessions were framed by Steve Cohen's keynote speech and powerful wrap-up.

The Kramers

Movin' and Steppin'

There are times when one needs to move — to newer places wider spaces

exchange the pond for the ocean and jump right in (it don't matter if your hair gets wet or briny)

Mothers can tell you shoes get too tight and clothes grow old

How can you be Cinderella in the same tired frumpy frog gown let alone Nefertiti or Cleopatra conquering the Nile

It just won't do.

Generally speaking,
it's hard for people's eyes
to readjust

There you stand — a brand new thang
and they keep talking to someone you left behind long time ago (and swear you never want to see again)

Jive action like that can push you back — into the Dark Ages, a closet, some fancy trickbag or claustrophobic hole

Take a stroll down different streets where there are flowers that you can't name and sights you've never seen before

Where the air breathes fresher and people take you for a stranger

And you can keep on walking hightime stepping getting up walking into that future self you got to be
